

EUROPEAN BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

STUDY ABROAD AT EUFH

COMPETENT IN EUROPE

Today's managers and employees are expected to consider the similarities and differences of the European Member States in their entrepreneurial actions.

International students at EUFH have the option to obtain the political, economical and cultural knowledge about Europe as well as the language skills required for their future careers when participating in our 3-month study abroad programme "European Business Management" (EBM).

EBM is offered each year from the end of September to December and 30 ECTS will be awarded upon successful completion. The programme is completely English-taught.

KEY BENEFITS

- EUFH offers outstanding educational quality as well as a personal atmosphere with direct contact to lecturers
- 3-months duration fits easily in domestic degree programmes
- Acquisition of full semester workload (30 ECTS)
- Experience Europe while studying it: intercultural competencies not only taught but applied while working in teams with members of different countries
- Brühl as an ideal starting point to discover Germany and Europe with its location close to Cologne and Bonn in Northrhine-Westphalia, one of the main economic centers and transport hubs in Germany with easy access to neighbouring countries like Belgium, The Netherlands or France
- Accompanying German language course

EUFH – WHO WE ARE

The European University of Applied Sciences (EUFH) is a state-accredited private university that offers industry-specific courses in business studies. After completion of studies, students are granted the internationally recognized academic degrees of Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) or Master of Arts (M.A.). As a small private university we are able to react particularly rapidly to the changing face of today's economy, so that students are always on top of the latest management trends. The overall aim of EUFH is to prepare its students for a career in the middle management.
