2. Detailed requirements and additional information

2.1. Recommended language skills

The sending institution, following agreement with our institution, is responsible for providing support to its nominated candidates so that they can have the recommended language skills at the start of the study or teaching period:

Type of mobility	Subject area	Language(s) of instruction	Recommended language of instruction level ¹
Student Mobility for Studies	Any	English	See: www.reading.ac.uk/vso-erasmusapply.aspx
Staff Mobility for Teaching	Any	English	Recommended equivalent of C1

Language learning can be provided through the provision offered by IWLP (www.reading.ac.uk/iwlp) and at SACLL (www.reading.ac.uk/sacll).

2.2. Module information

Information: www.reading.ac.uk/studyabroad/incomingstudents/whatcanistudy/vso-whatcanistudy.aspx.

Only modules listed at the above are available for selection unless permission has been provided by the Erasmus & Study Abroad Office for alternative modules to be selected. Modules listed on other parts of the University of Reading website are not available for selection. The list of module noted on the Erasmus & Study Abroad Office website is updated annually and is subject to change. The University of Reading reserves the right to amend its academic provision.

Information, including details regarding any restrictions on module selection, will be provided to the nominated students prior to their application. Further information is also noted on the module selection pages.

2.3. Methods of assessment

Each school at Reading sets its own default form of assessment, reviewed annually and approved by the relevant academic authorities at the University. Examination assessment takes place during the summer term.

Students who are not registered at the University for the summer term will be set an additional piece of assessment to replace the examination, as approved by the relevant academic authorities at the University. Students will be informed of the form of assessment by the academic department and the Erasmus & Study Abroad Office at the time they register onto the module, after arrival.

2.4. Students and Staff with Disabilities

The University of Reading has the infrastructure to welcome participants with disabilities in accordance of the requirement of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education² providing that full disclosure is made at nomination stage in order that the appropriate support and guidance can be provided to the participant by the relevant authorities at the University of Reading. Partner institutions are advised to contact the University of Reading well before the nomination and application deadlines to ensure that all necessary arrangements can be made. The sending institution is responsible for covering all extra costs in connection with the exchange. Further information can be found at: www.reading.ac.uk/studyabroad/incomingstudents/practicalinformation/vso-studentswithdisabilities.aspx

There are a small number of designed rooms in halls of residence available for students with disabilities, however availability is extremely limited and cannot be guaranteed to any student / member of staff.

4. Staff mobility

- Participants should discuss their options with their International Office (or equivalent responsible for the management of the Erasmus+ programme) to ensure that there is a valid bilateral agreement in place, and that there is funds available to support the mobility.
- The host department at the University of Reading is responsible for organisational aspects of the mobility, and should be the primary contacts for participants for arrangements related to the mobility.

Teaching Staff mobility:

- Incoming teaching staff must be individually accepted by the relevant host department at the University of Reading. Acceptance is dependent on all parties (i.e. participant, sending institution and the host department at the University of Reading) agreeing in advance to the content of the candidate's teaching plan and the timing of the proposed teaching mobility.
- The host department can assist in providing information to participants regarding accommodation.
- Participants who require a visa to enter the UK need to inform the host department in advance of the mobility. The hosting department will be responsible for liaising with the Department of Human Resources at Reading to ensure that the appropriate process is followed.
- A representative of the hosting academic department at Reading should sign the teaching programme and provide confirmation of the duration of the visit, or any other information required, in line with the requirements of the Erasmus+ programme.

Staff Training mobility:

- Incoming staff participating on the staff training programme must be individually accepted by the relevant department willing to host the mobility. Acceptance is dependent on all parties (i.e. participant, sending institution and the host department at the University of Reading) agreeing in advance to the content of the candidate's training plan and the timing of the proposed training mobility.
- The host department will be responsible for providing information to participants regarding accommodation.
- Participants who require a visa to enter the UK need to inform the host department in advance of the mobility. The hosting department will be responsible for liaising with the Department of Human Resources at Reading to ensure that the appropriate process is followed.
- A representative of the hosting academic department at Reading should sign the training programme and provide confirmation of the duration of the visit, or any other information required, in line with the requirements of the Erasmus+ programme.
